God decided to create the sky and the earth and created the world in this order: On the first day, God said, "Have light." The light was seen and began to exist. God saw that the light was good and made a separation between the light and the darkness. God called the light "day" and the darkness "night." The first day of creation passed.

Bible Story 1: CREATION OF THE WORLD

According to this theory, the original creation is mentioned only in Genesis 1:1. Genesis 1:2 describes the condition of the earth after its judgment, and Genesis 1:3-31 describes the earth's subsequent recreation. As is the case with most theories, there are variations from one proponent to another.

Constantine's Creation of Jesus Christ. It has often been said that "truth is stranger than fiction" and this has never been truer than as it relates to this weighty subject of the man-made creation of Jesus Christ. It appears that in A.D. 325, a new god was conceived within the black and white marble halls of Roman Catholicism.

The short answer to how the Greeks viewed the creation of the world is this: Scary old gods came first; they got stomped down by their kids, who were better looking, younger gods. These gods created humans. Humans and gods fought for supremacy, and the humans won a few rounds but eventually got trounced and became more and more miserable.

The creation of human beings comes later. Indeed, the Mesopotamian myths profess that human beings are created to suffer and die as servants of the gods. The Mesopotamian gods are, for the most part, indifferent to human suffering. When they do intervene in human affairs they do so for their own pleasure.
