A structured presentation of the rabbinic response literature from a comparative law perspective is difficult for several reasons. One issue is the extent of this literature, which has accompanied the Jewish oeuvre for – depending on how defined – 1000 to 1500 years; the number of responsa is estimated to fill several thousand volumes (Shmuel Glick supposes in his newest bibliography ...

This beautiful poem of the biblical virtuous woman is designed to show what wives the women should make and what wives the men should choose. This exquisite picture of a truly lovely wife is conceived and drawn in accordance with the customs of Eastern nations, but its moral teachings are suitable for all times. It consists of twenty-two verses, each beginning with a letter of the Hebrew ...
